

“Exchange – ArtInScene 2010” Social mirrors: confronting cultures

23 giugno/ 27 giugno
Oasi di Cavoretto, Turin - Italy

A five-day international meeting on Playback Theatre exploring theoretical
Issues, exchanging experiences,
workshops, performances,
considerations & sharing.

To whom it is addressed

“Exchange-ArtInScene2010” is addressed to:

Playback Theatre Groups and Practitioners coming from different countries to

- confront our different ways of using PT
- to look at innovations and the use of PT in different contexts
- exchange and share our experiences, through workshops and theoretical issues

Family members, children and friends who will not take part in the seminar can participate in the public events, and will be comfortably accommodated.

The place

Piedmont is in the North West of Italy - a land famous for royal residences, lakes, hills, Olympic peaks, parks, cities of art, and delight!

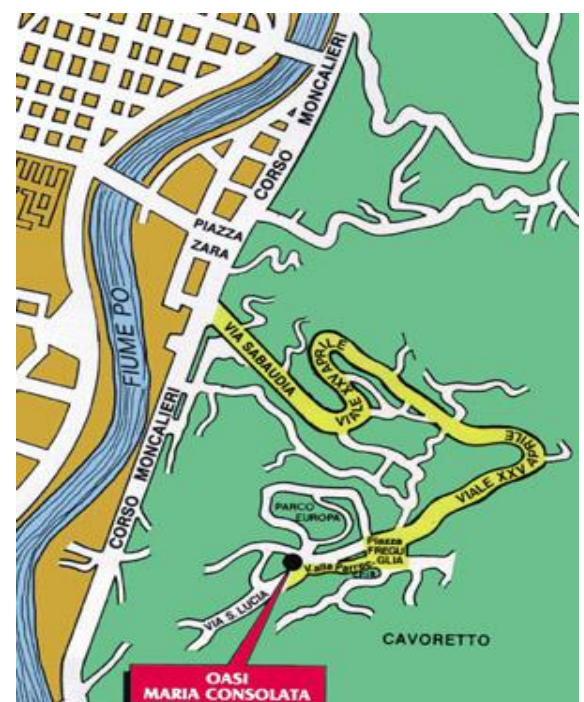

“Exchange-ArtInScene2010” will take place at Oasi di Cavoretto on the hills near Turin. The Oasis is an old mansion surrounded by green fields on the hill of Cavoretto, a few minutes away from Turin city centre. It is near “Parco Europa” - a huge park full of trees and flowers. The Oasis is surrounded by a private park of 15.000 square metres - a charming place to escape from the busy routine of life and recover physical and mental well-being. From the hills you can enjoy a view of the Alps, which surrounds the city. Here in Turin - with its regular streets, green spaces, the river Po - you can find culture, monuments, good music and fine cuisine.

Workshops

These provide important opportunities to experiment and expand our expressivity through training in

- development of individual and group spontaneity & creativity
- fostering listening skills in self and others
- different forms of communication
- aesthetic dimensions of improvisation
- all the artistic expressions related to Playback Theatre (addressed to practitioners - trainees)

The focus will be on: drama improvisation and Playback Theatre, vocal and music improvisation, dance and movement....

A detailed programme will be sent in April.

Performances

All the performances will take place in a wide and atmospheric theatre space in the evenings. These present a public moment (open to guests) during which it will be possible to experiment with the integration of new practice and artistic forms learnt in the workshops.

Trainers

The workshop trainers are international experts of PT, role playing, Action Methods, artistic, educational and therapy-oriented disciplines which cooperate with the Italian school of PT.

“Exchange-ArtInScene2010” is an important opportunity of meeting and sharing for those who, in different roles, are researchers in PT and its applications.

How to get to the premises

By car:

Motorway Milano/Torino: exit Corso Giulio Cesare, go straight on along Corso G. Cesare, turn left into Corso Novara, named Corso Tortona a bit farther.
